Our Services

Whitehorn Village offers Calgary's most comprehensive range of accommodation styles, supportive living services and health care options for seniors.

Our menu of care services is designed to provide for dignity, choice and an opportunity to age-in-place. Individual care plans are created in consultation with the resident, their family, and their personal physicians. One size does not fit all at Whitehorn Village and we are skilled in adapting our supportive services to meet the changing needs of our residents.

In addition to a full menu of supportive health services, basic monthly rents cover:

- ~ Choice of spacious studio, one and two bedroom suites each fully equipped with a kitchenette and private ensuite bathroom
- ~ All monthly utilities and cablevision
- ~ 3 meals and snacks served daily
- ~ weekly flat laundry service (sheets and towels)
- ~ weekly housekeeping
- ~ 24 hour nursing staff on duty
- ~ In-suite emergency response system
- ~ Full access to daily activities and fitness programs
- ~ Regularly scheduled bus transportation for outings and medical appointments

Family and friends are important to life at Whitehorn Village. Guests are most welcome anytime for lunch, dinner or at our monthly brunches and special "Family & Friends" social events.

Calgary's Best Value in Full Service Retirement Living

Welcome to Whitehorn Village

Whitehorn Village Retirement Community is a state-of-the-art residence offering a wide variety of rental suites with a full menu of services geared to promoting independence and quality of life for Calgary's seniors. At Whitehorn Village our goal is simple – to provide superior services and care to our residents.

Our Community

Whitehorn Village is conveniently located in northeast Calgary, close to major highways, shopping and community services. Our complex is fully sprinklered and equipped with the latest emergency response and life safety systems. Our amenities are plentiful and include an internet lounge, home theatre auditorium and bistro. Our social and recreational activities calendar is packed. Mostly however, our highly trained professionals are committed to delivering consistently high levels of customer satisfaction.

Just ask any of our residents or their families, or better yet, come see for yourself why Whitehorn Village is Calgary's best value in full-service retirement living.

Our Residents

Whitehorn Village is a thriving social community of fun-loving, active seniors where new residents are welcomed. Our residents come from diverse backgrounds and treasured friendships blossom easily. This truly is a great place to live.

Daily life at Whitehorn Village revolves around our residents. Whether it's a morning exercise class, a discussion of current events over lunch, a group outing on our own bus, or a spirited game of bridge with afternoon tea, there is always some activity or event to interest and stimulate every one of our residents.

Our Staff

The strong sense of community at Whitehorn Village is grounded in the remarkable relationships between our residents and staff. We are a hand-picked team of highly trained, enthusiastic professionals who share a passion for caring. We truly enjoy our work and we are committed to making a difference in the lives of our residents.

We believe that great customer service comes from teamwork and sweating the details. From nursing, to dining room and housekeeping, to our concierge, we're all focused on helping our residents live great lives.

Origin Adult Communities

Origin is the management company entrusted by the owners of Whitehorn Village since opening to oversee day-to-day operations. Origin's operational philosophies and staff training systems are the result of some 20 years of experience in the senior's housing industry. We take a wholistic approach where each resident is nurtured both body and soul. We listen and work closely with each resident and their family to help craft solutions that are centred on individual needs and desires.

Origin is a Canadian company committed to ensuring our employees are thoroughly trained and well prepared for the important responsibility of servicing the often complex needs of our residents.

Caring is our passion and it shows in what we do every day.
